

We provide new value to society with the development of ceramic technology

Noritake began its journey in 1904 with the manufacturing of porcelain. Since then, having ceramic technology as its core, we have expanded our business to various industrial fields.

INPUT

(Fiscal 2018)

Financial capital

- Total assets
1,518 hundred million yen
- Cash and deposits
141 hundred million yen

Manufacturing capital

- Equipment investment
53 hundred million yen
- Fixed assets
791 hundred million yen

Intellectual capital

- R&D investment
26 hundred million yen
- Number of patents held
622 patents

Human capital

- Number of employees
5,091 people

Social and relationship capital

- Domestic consolidated subsidiaries
11 companies
- Overseas consolidated subsidiaries
12 companies

The Noritake Creed

OUTPUT

(Fiscal 2018)

Stirring and mixing

Molding

Firing

Industrial Products
Business

Ceramics &
Materials
Business

Engineering
Business

Tabletop
Business

OUTPUT 1

Net Sales

1,258 hundred million yen

OUTPUT 2

Profit Attributable to Owners of Parent

98 hundred million yen

OUTPUT 3

Return on Equity

9.5 %

OUTPUT 4

Capital Ratio

68.4 %