(Note) A two-for-one common stock split was issued on April 1, 2026. Basic earnings per share, take into account the impact of the stock split.

2. Reasons for revisions

Regarding the consolidated earnings forecast for the full-year earnings forecast for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2027, in the Ceramic & Materials Business, among electronic paste and electronic component raw materials, materials for multi-layer ceramic capacitors performed steadily in the automotive, data center and AI server sectors. Therefore, both net sales and profit are expected to exceed the previous forecast, and the Company has revised earnings forecasts as described above. The assumed exchange rate consolidated earnings forecast for the second half of fiscal year is 150 yen to the U.S. dollar.

(Note) The consolidated earnings forecasts are based on certain assumptions that can be determined under current circumstances, and actual results may differ from the forecasts due to changes in circumstances that may arise in the future.
